SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

From the Pastor,

I want to again thank all of those who worked so hard to make this Lent and Easter so special. Saint Mary's is a truly remarkable community. Thank you for allowing me to be your pastor.

As we get used to the new church we are also having more people come to all of the Masses. Toward the end of Lent the combination of more people and the number of both adults and children involved in religious education in both languages led to crowds both in the parking situation and at church. Before next fall the Parish Pastoral Council, the Parish staff and I plan to look at all of the issues involved with these situations and make some changes. This could mean a change in Mass times among other things. That is not easy because of both the religious education needs and the prison ministry needs which Father Camacho must attend to on Sunday afternoons.

If you have thoughts on any of these subjects, please write them to me or to members of the Parish Pastoral Council. I hope by mid-summer we can make some decisions on all of this.

Just a reminder that tours of the church are this Sunday and next Sunday from 3 to 5. I thank Donna Vering and Chuck McDonald who are heading up the participation of people in the tours.

Peace,
Father Tom Faucher, Pastor

Con el permiso y bendición de todos ustedes me tomo unas semanas de vacaciones. Voy a Guadalajara, México, a convivir con mis hermanos y hermanas y sus familias. Espero regresar lo suficientemente descansado para continuar mi esfuerzo por servirlos a ustedes de la mejor manera posible. Deseo que la alegría y el gozo del tiempo pascual se vea reflejado en sus vidas. Me encomiendo a sus oraciones para que mi viaje resulte seguro y provechoso. Gracias.

Su amigo y servidor,
Padre Jesús Camacho
