From the Pastor,

I am pleased to have my friend Father Patrick Foley with us this weekend. He is a priest of the Diocese of Reno who gives missions all over the country.

We continue to work on the series of plaques for the narthex of the church which will detail all of the special gifts we received. We want to make this as nice and tasteful as the rest of the church. I had hoped this would be done by September, but it looks more and more likely it will not be until December or so to be finished.

On that same note, there are still items which can be donated. We have purchased furniture and umbrellas for the Creegan Courtyard, but if someone wanted to donate those items it would be very nice. We have two of the angels which still need donors. We also have the furniture we want to put in the narthex which we cannot yet afford. There are also some smaller items. If you can help, please contact me.

Thanks to all of you for your prayers and support during our Staff Days this past week.

Peace,
Fr. Tom Faucher, Pastor
