From the Pastor,

We have now installed a second angel and a third will be with us by the end of the month. I think it would be good to tell again the story of the "roof angels."

One of the most distinguishing features of the old Saint Mary's are the massive beams which support the roof. These will be replicated in the new part of the church. But these beams will now rest on the backs of angels, each holding a musical instrument. The original style of Saint Mary's Church comes from an English gothic tradition which had roof angels. The idea that the church is supported on the backs of angels so enraged Oliver Cromwell and the Puritan Roundheads during the English Civil War that he ordered all "Angel Churches" to be either burned or at least all the angels destroyed. There is a famous church in East Anglica where the people filled the church to the ceiling with hay, hiding the angels, and told Cromwell that they had made the church into a barn. When the civil war was over and Cromwell lost they were one of the few places with their church untouched.

Adding these roof angels now completes that style for Saint Mary's. Another tradition of many such churches is a piece of whimsy, which in this case will be one angel not holding up a beam but sitting on the cross piece of the beam taking a much needed break.

There will be ten angels in all, four over the altar holding trumpets, and six along the walls of the church. These will be holding a violin, mandolin, Basque flute, electric guitar, harp, and bagpipes. One feature of the angels in medieval times was the addition of new musical instruments as they came along. Thus in our case the electric guitar. The angels are being carved by Mr. J. Chester Armstrong, who is also doing the Great Doors. Eight of the angels have been donated but there are still two which would make wonderful memorial gifts to the parish.

Peace,
Father Tom Faucher, Pastor

Del Pastor,

Hemos instalado el segundo ángel y el tercero lo esperamos en los últimos días del mes. Pienso que es buena idea dar de nuevo una breve explosión de la historia de los "ángeles del techo".

Unas de las kársticas mas impresionantes del templo antiguo de Santa Maria son las vigas grandes que soportan el techo. Vamos a duplicar estas vigas en la nueva parte del templo. Los nuevos ángeles musicales van a soportar las vigas de la iglesia. El estilo original de la Iglesia de Santa Maria viene de la tradición inglesa medieval en donde había ángeles en el techo. La idea que la iglesia esta soportada por las espaldas de los ángeles enfureció al líder político de inglaterra Oliver Cromwell y a los que llamaban "Puritan Roundheads" o sea los que practicaban parlamentarismo, un sistema político durante el tiempo de la guerra civil en inglaterra en donde se ordeno que todas "Iglesias de los Ángeles" fueran quemadas o por lo menos los ángeles destruidos. Hay una iglesia famosa en el este de inglaterra en la diócesis de Anglica en donde la gente lleno la iglesia con paja hasta el techo, escondiendo los ángeles y le dijeron al líder Cromwell que hicieron un pajar de la iglesia. Cunado se termino y perdió la guerra civil el líder político, el señor Cromwell, esta iglesia fue una que no tocaron.

Los Ángeles Músicos que se encuentran en el techo interior de nuestra iglesia nos da la oportunidad de duplicar este estilo de templo aquí en Santa María. Otra tradición que se practica en estas iglesias es la idea de ser un poco ju-guetón que en este caso va hacer representado por un ángel que no se va a sentar en una viga sino en otra parte del techo en la iglesia en donde se va estar tomando un descanso merecido.

Vamos a tener en total 10 ángeles, 4 sobre el altar deteniendo trompetas, y 6 contra las paredes de la iglesia en el techo interior. Estos ángeles van a estar deteniendo varios instrumentos incluyendo violín, mandolina, flauta Basca, guitarra eléctrica, arpa y flautas Escosés. Un detalle de los ángeles durante la era media fue de agregar nuevos instru-mento cuando se incluía un ángel nuevo. Y en este caso por eso tenemos a la guitarra eléctrica. El escultor de los ángeles en nuestro templo es el señor J. Chester Armstrong, el escultador que esta trabajando en las puertas mayo-res. Ocho de los ángeles han sido donados pero toda vía hay dos disponibles. Los invito a que las tomen en cuenta si quieren donar un regalo a la iglesia en el nombre de un ser querido.

Paz, Padre Tom Faucher, Párroco

Hablemos un poco de la importancia de la cultura y de su conexión con la fe. En su carta sobre la presencia de los hispanos en este país (12 de diciembre de 1983), los obispos católicos dicen: "todos tenemos la obligación de apreciar nuestra propia historia y reflexionar sobre el origen étnico, racial y cultural que nos hace ser una nación de inmigrantes. Desde el punto de vista histórico, la Iglesia de los Estados Unidos ha sido una 'Iglesia de inmigrantes'" (#4). Con relación a los hispanos, una de las formas en las que tratamos de poner esto en práctica, es en la celebración de los sacramentales y en la preparación de las quinceañeras y de los sacramentos, porque "del mismo modo que para otros pueblos con una fuerte tradición católica, para los hispanos la religión, la cultura, la fe y la vida, son insepara-bles" (#5). Agradezco al Padre Faucher, al Padre Miller, a los diáconos, al staff de St. Mary's y a todas las personas de nuestra parroquia el gran respeto que han mostrado hacia la cultura hispana y hacia otras culturas; y aprecio sobre-manera el deseo que manifiestan de conocerlas y de darles la oportunidad de que expresen algunos de sus valores y tradiciones. Es la viva demostración de un verdadero espíritu católico. Gracias y felicidades.

Su amigo y servidor,
Padre Jesús Camacho

Let's talk a little about the importance of culture and its connection to faith. In their pastoral letter on the presence of the Hispanics in this country (December 12, 1983), the Catholic Bishops said: "We all have the obligation of appreciat-ing our own history and reflecting upon the ethnic, racial and cultural origin which makes us a nation of immigrants". From a historical perspective, the Church in the United States has been a 'Church of immigrants'" (#4). In relation to Hispanics, one way we try to practice this is to celebrate the sacramentals and within the preparation classes for quinceañeras and other sacraments because "in the same manner that other populations with a strong Catholic Tradi-tion, Hispanics and their religion, their culture, their faith and life, are all inseparable" (#5). I appreciate Fr. Faucher, Fr. Miller, the deacons the staff of St. Mary's and all of the people in our parish who share their great respect toward the Hispanic Culture and other cultures; I greatly appreciate the desire that is manifested to know more about these traditions and the opportunity that is given to express some of the values and traditions. It is the real demonstration of a true catholic spirit. Thank you and congratulations.
