From the Pastor:

In just 3 days we will celebrate the dedication of our new church. There will be two evenings of celebration. On Wednesday, January 21st at 7 PM, we will have the Mass of Dedication. On Thursday, January 22nd at 7 PM we will have a Mass of Thanksgiving. The dedication service will be about 2 or more hours long, the Mass of Thanksgiving will be about an hour.

I wish that everyone could attend the dedication but I know that even with our expanded space there is only room for a limited number of people in the church. We urge those who are planning to come to come early. Also parking will be a problem so car pool if possible, and plan to park at St. Mary's Crossing or in one of the lots of the shops across State Street.

Peace, Fr. Tom Faucher, Pastor

Semana de Oración por la Unidad de los Cristianos. Los cristianos de todo el mundo rezarán por la unidad en 2009 con el fin de que "estén todos unidos en tu mano" (Ver Ezequiel 37,17). En efecto, congregaciones y parroquias de todo el mundo toman parte en la Semana de Oración, que se celebra tradicionalmente del 18 al 25 de enero (en el hemisferio norte) y en torno a Pentecostés (en el hemisferio sur). El tema de este año es: "estarán unidos en tu mano" (Ez 37,17). Estas palabras proféticas de Ezequiel dirigidas al pueblo elegido son una alegoría de la unidad de la Iglesia, aunque el profeta las aplicó a la necesaria unidad de Israel rota tanto por los pecados de los dirigentes como del pueblo. Habla el profeta de dos leños a modo de trozos de una vara de mando rota, que el Señor le ordena al profeta unir en su propia mano como signo para la casa de Israel (Ez 37,15-28). Son aplicables a la Iglesia dividida porque, al igual que el pueblo de la Antigua Alianza, dividido en contiendas contrarias a la voluntad de Dios, también las divisiones de las iglesias cristianas son contrarias a la voluntad de Cristo, que quiso una sola y única Iglesia visible: "Como Tú, Padre, estás en Mí y Yo en Tí, que también ellos estén en nosotros. De este modo el mundo creará que Tú me has enviado" (Juan 17,21).

Esta semana también celebraremos la Dedicación de nuestra nueva Iglesia parroquial. Damos gracias a Dios, porque con su gracia nos fue posible llevar a cabo esta tarea; y a todas las personas cuya contribución ayudó a la realización del proyecto. ¡Gracias!

Su amigo y servidor, Padre Jesús Camacho

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. Christians from all over the world pray for unity in 2009 so "that they may become one in your hand" (Ezekiel 37:15-19, 22-24a). In effect, congregations and parishes of the world participate in the Week of Prayer that is traditionally from the 18th to the 25th of January (in the Northern Hemisphere) and in turn during Pentecost (in the Southern Hemisphere). This year's theme is: "That they may become one in your hand." (Ezekiel 37:17).

These prophetic words from Ezekiel, directed to the Chosen People, are an allegory of Church Unity; even though the prophet applied them to the necessary unity of Israel torn by the sins of both the leaders and the people. The prophet speaks of joining together two pieces of wood; symbolic of joining Israel. The Lord orders the prophet to unite two sticks with his very hands as a sign of unity in the Kingdom of Israel (Ez 37:15-28).

Church Remodeling—Phase II Milestones

They are applicable to the divided Church because, just as the Old Covenant divided in the adverse struggles of the Will of God, the divisions of the Christian churches are contrary to the Will of Christ, who wanted only one, unified visible Church: "As you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they may also be in us. In this way, the world will believe that you have sent me." (John 17, 21).

This week we also celebrate the Dedication of our new Parish Church. Let us give thanks to God, because with His grace, it was possible to accomplish this task; and to all who contributed and helped make this project a reality, thank you!

Padre Jesús Camacho
