PASTORS' PAGE

From the Pastor,

It is good to be home. These have been busy days since I returned from vacation and the rest of the summer looks to be busy as well. This week is the great Basque festival of Jaialdi and we join with all the Basque members of our community in being excited and ready for the festivities. I will be at the Basque Mass at the Cathedral next Saturday and I urge anyone who has never seen that particular Mass to try to make it as well.

I have been asked about my trip to England, Scotland and Wales and I will write about that in the next MAGNIFICAT newsletter.

Peace,
Fr. Tom Faucher, Pastor

Del Párroco,

Que bueno es regresar a mí casa. Estos días han sido muy ocupados, como acabo de regresar de mis vacaciones y aparece que el resto del verano también va estar ocupado. Esta semana es el gran festival Vasco que se llama Jaialdi y nos reuniremos con todos los miembros de nuestra comunidad que son Vascos con entusiasmo y listos para las festividades. Yo estaré en la Misa Vasca en la Catedral el próximo sábado y ánimo a los que no han visto esta Misa en particular que intenten participar.

Me han pedido que les comparta mis experiencias de mi viaje a Inglaterra, Escocia, y el País de Gales y si lo escribiré en la próxima edición del MAGNIFICAT.

Paz,
Fr. Tom Faucher, Párroco

Todos necesitamos una casa. No solamente para resguardarnos de las incomodidades del clima y para tener nuestra vida privada. Eso bien lo pudiéramos tener en un hotel. Necesitamos una casa donde podamos vivir una vida de familia, donde podamos expresar y recibir cariño, rodeados de personas de nuestra confianza. De esta manera podemos alimentar y madurar tanto nuestra vida humana como espiritual. Necesitamos una casa para poder vivir nuestra vida.

Muchos inmigrantes han venido solos, sin su familia. A veces viven con amistades o paisanos o compañeros de trabajo. Pero no es lo mismo. Necesitan el "ambiente" de familia. Es importante que sepan que la comunidad de fe, la parroquia, es su familia. Los lazos de la fe, de la esperanza y del amor deben ser más fuertes que los puros lazos de la sangre y de la tierra. Hago una cordial invitación, de una manera particular, a las personas que han venido sin su familia a que vengan y participen en las actividades de la familia parroquial de Santa María, sobre todo la Misa del sábado por la tarde y del domingo a las 12:30 del mediodía. La parroquia es su casa. ¡Bienvenidos!

Su amigo y servidor
Padre Jesús Camacho

Each of us needs a home. Not only to keep us safe from the inconveniences of the climate but also to be able to have a private life. This can simply be had by renting a hotel room but what we really need, is a house where we can share a family life where we could offer and receive affection, surrounded by people we trust. In this fashion, we are able to nourish and mature not only our physical life but our spiritual one as well. In other words, we need a house where we can live our life.

Many immigrants have come all alone – that is, without their family. Very often they live with acquaintances, fellow countrymen, or countrywomen, or with co-workers, or with classmates. But that is not enough, what they need is the warmth of family. For them, it is very important to know that their parish community of faith is their own and real family. The links of faith, hope and love should be stronger than the blood and land links. I would like to extend a heartfelt invitation, particularly to those who have come without a family, to attend and participate in the community life of St. Mary's Parish beginning with the Saturday evening Mass or 12:30 Mass on Sunday, St. Mary's Parish is your home. Welcome!

Your Friend and servant,
Padre Jesús Camacho

1. Relate an experience when you were able to uncover a "hidden treasure." What helped you to see its value?
2. What are you willing to "pay" or "give up" in order to possess what is valuable to you?
3. What about you could be described as being like the "pearl of great price"? What are the gifts that are uncovered by being related to each other as members of the same community?

COMO SER LA EUCARISTIA PARA OTROS

Ministerio de Educación Católica y St. Paul's, Nampa presenta Padre Mauricio Medina Como Ser La Eucaristía Para Otros.

Miércoles, 3 de agosto, 2005

7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

St. Paul's, Nampa

Cómo ser humano no es fácil. Jesús nos enseña cómo vivir en nuestros cuerpos. Hay seis aspectos del ser humano: 1. Inteligencia – “yo pienso”; 2. Emocional – “yo siento”; 3. Social – “yo disfruto”; 4. Sexual – “yo deseo”; 5. Espiritual – “yo creo”; 6. Corporal – “yo soy cuerpo.” Aprendan cómo poner más atención a estos 6 aspectos de su vida. Esto le puede ayudarles a ser la presencia de Cristo a otros.

¿Preguntas? Si tiene usted preguntas, haga el favor de ponerse a contacto Padre Oscar Jaramilla a (208) 466-7031 en St. Paul's, Nampa.

ELIZABETH PLACE...ONE YEAR LATER

Since opening in July 2004, Elizabeth Place experienced an amazing year of blessings, struggle and learning for our collaborative transitional housing program with St. Vincent de Paul and Catholic Charities. We learned that the biggest need in Boise is help for those battling drug and alcohol dependency. Realizing we were not equipped to meet all the needs for this group of women, we were thrilled to learn about the great program at Chrysalis. As of July 1 our home on Roosevelt became a third home for the women in the Chrysalis program. This non-denominational Christian based program has an excellent success rate and we were thrilled that they could use our home to provide help for more women in need. Please consider donating to them. They need monetary donations and also mentors who help the women through the Chrysalis women's auxiliary. For more information, call 376-4935 or 333-9973 or mail your tax-deductible donation to: Chrysalis Women's Transitional Living, P.O. Box 7494, Boise, 83707.
