July 2, 2006

Page 1

Our pastor, Father Thomas Faucher, is on a partial medical leave from parish ministry. This is to give him time and opportunity to recover from illness. Almost all parish ministry will be done by Father Miller, Father Camacho, our deacons and parish staff during this time. Father Faucher will celebrate or concelebrate some Sunday Masses and preach on occasion, but not on a regular basis. Please keep Father Faucher in your prayers.

PASTORS' PAGE

From the Pastor:

This week I return to more ministry in the parish. I cannot say it is really full time yet, I am not quite strong enough for that. But I will be in the office on a more regular basis and take part in more parish events and ministry. Again, I want to thank Father Miller and Father Camacho, our great deacons, and all the parish staff for the great work they have done in my absence.

In the next weeks I will be sending out a letter to all the parish which will be a REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE PARISH. I last issued such a report in January of 2003 and it is time for an update.

Thanks to all of you for the prayers you have offered for me and my health. You are wonderful congregation and I am humbled and proud to be your pastor.

Peace, Fr. Tom Faucher, Pastor

Esta semana regreso al ministerio de la parroquia. No puedo decir que va hacer un trabajo de tiempo completo porque toda vía no me siento completamente fuerte. Pero sí voy a estar en la oficina más frecuentemente y participar en más eventos y ministerios parroquiales. De nuevo quiero agradecerles al Padre Miller y al Padre Jesús, a los diáconos y al personal de la oficina parroquial por todo el trabajo que han hecho en mi ausencia.

En las próximas semanas voy a enviar una carta a todos los feligreses de nuestra parroquia para darles un reporte del estado de la parroquia. O sea un resumen de lo que ha pasado y lo que esta pasando en relación a los ministerios, el estado financiero y los planes de la renovación. La última vez que se preparo un reporte como este fue en el mes de enero del 2003 y pienso que ya es tiempo de hacer un reporte nuevo.

Muchas gracias a todos por las oraciones que me han ofrecido por mi salud. Tenemos aquí feligreses muy especiales y con mucha humildad estoy muy orgulloso de ser su párroco.

Paz, padre Tom Faucher Parroco

Hace 25 años, el 7 de julio de 1981, a la 1:00 p.m. y después de cinco días de viaje por carretera desde el puerto de Veracruz, México, llegué a la ciudad de Boise, Idaho. La parroquia de Sacred Heart, cuyo párroco era el Padre Tom Faucher, me dio la bienvenida y hospedaje por los primeros días. La razón de mi venida: el obispo Sylvester Treinen me invitó a venir con el propósito de ayudar a la diócesis de Boise a servir en su propia lengua a los católicos hispanohablantes del estado de Idaho. Mi primer destino fue Blackfoot, donde celebré mi primera Misa en español el domingo 12 de julio. Estuve en esa parroquia hasta 1985, cuando el obispo Treinen me envió al Seminario de Mt. Angel, Oregon, a aprender inglés. Cuando regresé fui enviado a la parroquia de St. Mark, en Boise, para empezar a practicar mi inglés. Después de once meses, fui nombrado párroco de Homedale. En 1993, el obispo Brown me asignó la parroquia de Jerome, donde estuve hasta fines de 1998. En 1999, volví a Boise cuando el obispo Driscoll me nombró Director Diocesano del Ministerio de Prisiones, labor que desempeño hasta el presente. En el 2000 empecé a celebrar Misas en español en la parroquia de St. Mary; y a partir del 2003 fui nombrado auxiliar del Padre Faucher, servicio que presto hasta el presente. Quiero aprovechar esta oportunidad para dar gracias a Dios por haberme permitido venir a este país y a este estado donde he crecido y madurado, tanto en lo humano como en lo espiritual. Agradezco también a todas las personas que me aceptado y apoyado durante todos estos años. Pido a Dios que premie abundantemente a todas las personas por el amor que me han dado y por todo el bien que me han hecho. ¡Feliz Día de la Independencia!

Su amigo y servidor,
Padre Jesús Camacho

Twenty Five years ago, on July 7, 1981 at 1PM and after five days of travelling from the port of Veracruz, Mexico, I arrived here in the city of Boise, Idaho.

The parish of Sacred Heart whose pastor then was Fr. Faucher, gave me a warm welcome and hosted me my first days here. The reason for my coming here: Bishop Sylvester Treinen invited me to come with the purpose of helping the Diocese of Boise serve the Catholic, Spanish speaking people in Idaho in their own language.

My first assignment was in Blackfoot where I celebrated my first Mass in Spanish on Sunday July 12. I remained in that parish until 1985 when Bishop Treinen sent me to the Seminary in Mt. Angel, Oregon to learn English. After 11 months I was named Pastor in Homedale. In 1993, Bishop Brown assigned me to the Jerome Parish where I remained until the latter part of 1998. In 1999, I returned to Boise when Bishop Driscoll named me Diocesan Director of Prison Ministries which is the work that I do currently. In 2000 I began celebrating Masses in Spanish at St. Mary's and beginning in 2003 I was named assisting priest for Fr. Faucher, which is where I continue to serve presently. I would like to take this opportunity to give thanks to God for allowing me to come to this country and to this state where I have grown and matured both humanly and spiritually. I also appreciate all of the people who have accepted me and supported me all of these years. I ask God to reward abundantly all of the people for all of the love given me and for all of the good that they have given me. Happy Independence Day!

Your Friend and Servant
Father Jesus Camacho

St. Mary's Food Bank continues to be very busy and is in need of some help on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays between the hours of 1 and 3 p.m. The primary responsibility is putting together food boxes for the clients, but we also need assistance in restocking the shelves. You will need to be able to lift 40 to 50 pounds. The work is very gratifying and there are many people who need our help. If you are interested, contact Isabell Yale at the Food Bank by leaving a message at the parish office (344-2597).

BISHOP KELLY HIGH SCHOOL – ATTENTION PARENTS:

Please note the following rules for students from all Treasure Valley Parishes who attend Bishop Kelly High School. Each year the number of students from our parish grows. We are proud of the students and the representation they offer to Bishop Kelly from St. Mary's. Each Treasure Valley parish subsidizes each of their student's tuition by $800.

Bishop Kelly has set guidelines which need to be met in order to qualify for the subsidy of the parish.

- #1) You must be actively registered as a family at St. Mary's by no later than June 30, 2006.
- #2) The family must be active in parish life by sharing their time, talents and treasure. Please note, the supporting pastors will verify registration and participation in their parish. They must approve the tuition support payment for each student or the tuition will be at regular rate.

In late August, Bishop Kelly will send us a list of the students who have listed St. Mary's as their parish. We are required to verify the name and activity level for each family. Please take the time to introduce yourself to Father Faucher, Father Miller, Father Camacho and other members of the parish staff. Let them be able to put a face to the name before this list arrives.

The families unknown to the office or parish staff will be denied as St. Mary's students, and will not be eligible for the tuition break.

VOLLEYBALL CAMP

Bishop Kelly is sponsoring a Volleyball Camp for grades 5 – 8 on July 11 – 14 from 9:30 a.m. until Noon. The cost of the camp is $50. Please call Vicki Gribble 344-7516 for additional information.
