From the Pastor,

I am away on vacation as you read this. I am sure I will be having a good time. I want to wish all of the parish a happy Fourth of July weekend. It is a time for family and fun.

I also want to mention again that we have the videos of the Dedication of the church for sale at the office. They are wonderful and show that great ceremony at its best. I do hope that many people choose to get one and share it with those who could not be there.

For the next couple of weeks other members of the staff will use this space for some of their thoughts.

Peace,
Father Tom Faucher, Pastor

6 de Julio: La Iglesia conmemora a Santa María Goretti, en el aniversario de su martirio. Nació en Corinaldo, Italia, en 1890, de una familia humilde. Su niñez, bastante dura, transcurrió en Nettuno (cerca de Roma) y durante ese tiempo se ocupó en ayudar a su madre en las tareas domésticas. Era piadosa y constante en la oración. El 6 de Julio de 1902, cuando ella contaba con once años de edad, fue amenazada con un punzón por Alessandro Serenelli, quien trató de abusar sexualmente de ella. Ella prefirió morir antes que pecar. Durante su agonía perdonó a su agresor quien, tras años de cárcel, se convirtió. El Papa Pío XII la canonizó el 24 de junio de 1950, en la plaza de san Pedro en Roma y con la asistencia de su madre, su familia y su asesino, ya convertido; y la llamó "pequeña y dulce mártir de la pureza". Juan Pablo II, el 6 de julio de 2003 dijo: "Marietta, como era llamada familiarmente, recuerda a la juventud del tercer milenio que la auténtica felicidad exige valentía y espíritu de sacrificio, rechazo de todo compromiso con el mal y disponibilidad para pagar con el propio sacrificio, incluso con la muerte, la fidelidad a Dios y a sus mandamientos". Existe una película ("Cielo sulla palude" = Cielo sobre el pantano) dirigida por Augusto Genina, 1949; y un documental: "Fourteen Flowers of Pardon" Catorce Flores de Perdón", elaborado por EWTN.

Su amigo y servidor,
Padre Jesús Camacho

6th of July: The Church commemorates St. Maria Goretti on the anniversary of her martyrdom. She was born in Corinaldo, Italy in 1890 to a humble family. Her difficult childhood continued as she and her family had to move to Nettuno (near Rome) and during this time she helped her mother with domestic chores. She was pious and devoted to prayer. On July 6, 1902, when she was 11 years old, a man by the name of Alessandro Serenelli threatened her with death if she did not do as he said. She did not submit and preferred to die than to commit a mortal sin. During her agony she forgave her aggressor who, after being incarcerated, experienced a conversion. Pope Pius XII canonized her on the 24th of June, 1950, in St. Peter's Square in Rome while her mother, family and the repented and converted murder were present; he called her "little and sweet martyr of purity." John Paul II on July 6, 2003, said: "Marietta, as she was familiarly known, reminds the youth of our modern society that authentic happiness requires courage and a spirit of sacrifice, remaining firm against the temptations of the world and willingness to pay with our own sacrifice including death, fidelity to God and His Commandments." There's a movie called "Cielo Sulla Palude" or "Heaven above the Swamp" directed by Augusto Genina, 1949 - a documentary and "Fourteen Flowers of Pardon", produced by EWTN.

Your friend and servant,
Padre Jesús Camacho
