From the Pastor,

There are a number of things to mention today. First of all, I want to again thank all of those who took part last weekend in the National Survey. The results will be very helpful to the parish.

I am very proud of the continued progress of Saint Mary's School. It is truly becoming better every day. But these are difficult times for the school. As with all private schools, a downturn in the economy can cause serious difficulties, and can force families who want to send their children to a Catholic school to be unable to afford to do so. Saint Mary's, at the present time, has a lower enrollment than we want, and finances are the main problem.

During this coming year I will be making every effort to find sources of funds for our school. As the summer begins I have two requests of the parish community. The first is to encourage all families to seriously consider sending their children to Saint Mary's, even if the finances seem to be an obstacle. We will be making strides to find scholarship money. And second, I would like to make one of those strides in asking people who have the means to do so to contribute scholarship money to Saint Mary's School.

In-parish tuition for Saint Mary's is $2,980, and out-of-parish tuition is $4,250. All families would be required to pay part of that cost. But if someone would pay part of that cost, it would make it possible for a child to attend Saint Mary's School. If you can help, just send in a check to the parish marked "Saint Mary's School" and write the words "Scholarship" on the check. This would help so much.

Please mark on your calendars that we will have an Advent Mission this year given by Kevin Saunders. Kevin has been at Saint Mary's a number of times and is one of the best scripture teachers in the United States. This year the topic will "Messiah: What does that mean?" Kevin will be here Thursday night, Friday night, and Saturday morning, December 3, 4, and 5.

Lastly, at the end of the Masses this weekend during the announcements we will show a little bit of the video of the dedication of the Church. They will be on sale in the narthex after each Mass.

Peace,
Father Tom Faucher, Pastor

Queridos/as niños/as y jóvenes que por primera vez van a comer el Cuerpo y a beber la Sangre de nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Hoy es uno de los días más importantes de su vida, porque es un encuentro con su Dios y Señor en el sacramento de la Eucaristía; y también porque van a participar por primera vez, con los demás miembros de la comunidad católica de Santa María, del Banquete de Vida Eterna que se ofrece cada domingo. Quiero felicitarlos sinceramente y pedirles que dejen que su corazón se llene de alegría y gratitud por el regalo divino que van a recibir. Al mismo tiempo quiero felicitar a sus papás, que los han acompañado durante su preparación y van a estar con ustedes, junto con sus padrinos y madrinas, en este día tan hermoso. En nombre de toda la parroquia quiero expresar también mi agradecimiento al equipo de catequistas que dieron su tiempo, energía, conocimientos y amor para preparar a estos niños/as y jóvenes. Que Dios les llene de su bendiciones. ¡Felicidades!

Su amigo y servidor,
Padre Jesús Camacho

I want to sincerely congratulate you and ask you to allow your heart to
