From the Pastor,

This has been a busy time for all of us at Saint Mary's. But now that the church is almost finished and the Creegan Garden Courtyard is almost finished, it is time to deal with another issue that was difficult for us during most of the last year -- all the activity on Sunday mornings.

We need to take as broad a view as possible of all of the issues surrounding Sunday mornings. These include Mass times, religious education in both English and Spanish, coffee hours, parking problems, prison and nursing home ministries, and others.

Before we can find solutions we need to make sure we understand all the factors involved. To do this I would like to form a task force of people to examine everything and make some recommendations. This will be small group of people. If you would like to help with this effort, please call the parish office and express your wish to participate. I doubt if we can name every person who might call the task force, but I can assure you that every suggestion will be taken seriously.

This all needs to be done soon, so if you want to be involved, please call the office as soon as possible.

And thanks to all who took the survey this weekend and to Sandy Banta and Mike and Ruth Gibbons for overseeing the doing of the survey.

Peace,
Father Tom Faucher, Pastor

Nuestro Dios es una familia, una comunidad de Tres Personas, tan perfectamente unidas en el Amor, que constituyen un solo Dios. Esta es la identidad de nuestro Dios: unidad en la diversidad. Este es el misterio del Dios en quien creemos y a quien obedecemos y amamos. La importancia de este misterio radica en que nosotros fuimos creados a imagen y semejanza de este Dios. Es decir, nuestra identidad consiste en que todos los diversos y distintos miembros de la humanidad estamos llamados a formar una sola familia. Este es precisamente el plan de salvación; y por esto precisamente murió y resucitó nuestro Señor Jesucristo. El esfuerzo por crear en nuestra parroquia una sola familia unida en el amor de Dios, es toda una proclamación del misterio de la Santísima Trinidad.

Su amigo y servidor,
Padre Jesús Camacho

Our God is one family, one community of three persons, perfectly united in love that consists of only one God. This is the identity of our God: Unity in diversity. This is the mystery of God in whom we believe and whom we obey and love. The importance of this mystery is rooted in the fact that we were created in His image and likeness. It is to say, our identity is made up of diverse and different members of humanity and we are all called to form one family. This is precisely the plan of salvation and this is the reason for Our Lord Jesus Christ's death and resurrection. This is the very effort that our parish family strives for as we work towards a united family in God's love; it is a clear proclamation of the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity.

Your friend and servant,
Padre Jesús Camacho
