From the Pastor,

As we come to the end of the school year, many things are happening. We have had First Communion for the English speaking part of our community and will soon have Confirmation for both the English speaking and Spanish speaking parts of our community. Confirmation will be on May 31st at 6 p.m. at Saint Mark's Church.

I thank all of those who have helped so much in preparing those receiving these great sacraments. We have many fine and good people who make this possible.

The "Creegan Garden Courtyard" is coming along well. You can see some of the plants are already there and more are coming. This Garden Courtyard is a great way to honor Monsignor John Creegan, and donations for the Garden Courtyard are very much welcome.

In the next few weeks, I will be listing again the things which still are available for donation within the church itself. We have several windows which are yet to be paid for, as well as other things.

Peace, Father Tom Faucher, Pastor

Some weeks ago in the bulletin I had a short message about S 1114, a bill before the Idaho legislature which deals with the difficult and complicated issues involving those who are critically ill. This bill gives the adult developmentally disabled the same rights at the end of life that everyone else enjoys.

I must admit that in the hectic time of Holy Week I did not do enough research before recommending that people go to the Right to Life of Idaho website for more information on this. This is one of those issues where I now realize that the position taken by Right to Life of Idaho is not the position I think is the best and most moral. A great deal of work was done by fine moralists, doctors, hospital administrators on this issue. Right to Life of Idaho was involved but chose to take the other side. I think this was a mistake on their part. Sorry that I made the mistake of recommending something before I understood it better. Father Tom Faucher, Pastor

Día de la Madre. En todas las culturas y pueblos de la Tierra, la madre ocupa un lugar muy especial en la sociedad. Es muy notable el papel que la madre desempeña en la cultura hispana. Pero no sólo en la cultura sino también en la religión, la madre juega un papel primordial. Es tan importante, que hasta el mismísimo Hijo de Dios tuvo una Madre. Nuestro continente de Las Américas tiene también la bendición de contar con una Madre: Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. Quiero felicitar a todas las madres de nuestra parroquia. Que Dios premie todos los sacrificios que han hecho para transmitir y alimentar la vida. ¡Que Dios las bendiga y las proteja! ¡Felicidades en su Día!

Su amigo y servidor,
Padre Jesús Camacho
