From the Pastor,

This is Pentecost. It is the end of the Easter Season, the birthday of the Church, and a truly great day. Today is one of the three days of the year when the Great Doors are open. It is a day to acknowledge the presence of the Holy Spirit in each of us.

This weekend, Saturday night at 6:15, we will have the blessing of the new Monsignor John J. Creegan Garden Courtyard. I am very grateful to all who have donated so far to make this Garden Courtyard a reality and those will do so in the future. I thank John Sterling, the landscape architect, Pat Walsh our church architect, Bill Clayton, Ray Hoobing, John Krueger, Jim Stubbs, Dave Stemic, Jim Blaine, Bob Parsley and the many other people who have worked to make this beautiful place a reality. I again thank Beth Carpenter for her work in restoring Fr. Creegan's Rose Garden (which used to be between the church and the rectory) to live once again. We have placed the statue of Saint Fiacre, the patron of gardeners, in the new Rose Garden. It was given to Beth some years ago as a thank you from the parish for all she has done and continues to do. Knowing Monsignor Creegan, I think he would be very proud of this new Garden Courtyard in his honor.

I also want to remind all of us that next weekend all of the English Masses will have a national survey passed out before Mass. Please try to come early.

This week is the Diocesan Convocation, a meeting of the people who work for the church throughout the state. Please keep the convocation in your prayers.

Peace,
Father Tom Faucher, Pastor

La fiesta de Pentecostés nos presenta el "lanzamiento" de la Iglesia a cumplir su misión en el mundo, empujada por el Espíritu Santo. La Iglesia nació bajo el signo de la pluralidad y del multiculturalismo: "Cada quien los oye hablar de las maravillas del Señor en su propia lengua" (Hechos 2,11). Es muy significativo constatar, por ejemplo, que la Biblia ha sido traducida prácticamente a todas las lenguas del mundo; y cada domingo el Santo Sacrificio de la Misa es ofrecido en todo el mundo en más de cien lenguas distintas. En su documento "Gozo y Esperanza" (Gaudium et Spes) la Iglesia nos dice:

"En la propia revelación a su pueblo que culminó con la manifestación plena de su Hijo encarnado, Dios habló de acuerdo a la cultura propia de cada época. En forma similar, en circunstancias diversas, la Iglesia ha existido a través de los siglos y ha utilizado las riquezas de las diferentes culturas en su predicación, para esparcir y explicar el mensaje de Cristo, examinarlo, entenderlo más profundamente y expresarlo más perfectamente en la liturgia y en varios aspectos de la vida de fe" (#58).

Como la Santísima Trinidad, Pentecostés expresa el misterio de la unidad en la diversidad de Dios y de su Iglesia.

Felicito a todos los jóvenes de nuestra parroquia que este domingo recibirán el sacramento de la Confirmación. ¡Que la recepción del Espíritu Santo de manos del obispo, los llene de entusiasmo para vivir y proclamar su fe como testigos de Cristo! ¡Felicidades!

Su amigo y servidor,
Padre Jesús Camacho

The Feast of Pentecost presents to us the "beginning" of the fulfillment of the Church's mission, empowered by the Holy Spirit. Plurality and multiculturalism are the signs by which the church originated: "...yet all of us hear them speaking in our own languages about the great things that God has done!" (Acts 2:11) It is very significant to note, for example, that the Bible has been translated to practically all of the languages of the world; and every Sunday, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is offered in the entire World in more than 100 different languages. In the church document named "Joy and Hope" (Gaudium et Spes) the Church tells us:

"There are many links between the message of salvation and culture. In his self-revelation to his people, fully manifesting himself in his incarnate Son, God spoke in the context of the culture proper to each age. Similarly the church has existed through the centuries in varying circumstances and has utilized the resources of different cultures to spread and explain the message of Christ in its preaching, to examine and understand it more deeply, and to express it more perfectly in the liturgy and in the life of the multiform community of the faithful." (#58)

Like the Holy Trinity, Pentecost expresses the mystery of the unity in the diversity of God and His Church.

Congratulations to all from our parish who will be receiving the sacrament of Confirmation this Sunday. May the reception of the Holy Spirit from the hands of the bishop, fill them with enthusiasm to live and proclaim their faith as witnesses of Christ! Congratulations!

Your friend and servant,
Padre Jesús Camacho
