FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

May 6, 2007

First of all let me report that I am doing well. My recovery from my new hip surgery is going faster than expected and the doctors are very pleased. I suppose part of it is that I am being very obedient to all the things I am supposed to do. I will be at some events in the next few weeks but not be the main person for them.

I know that Saint Mary's looks barren and empty with the loss of our trees. It was a sad day when they were taken down, but it is necessary for the new church and for the removal of the old rectory. We will plant new trees as part of the new construction.

I want to thank from the bottom of my heart the many people who responded to the call for volunteers to help in the update of the old convent so it can be used as the new parish office. We had many people, especially from the Hispanic community, who came in and painted and did many other things. Special mention should be made of Carlos Castro, Israel Gonzalez, Rosa Gonzalez, Dolores Ornelas, Bob and Pat Oberholzer, Wendy Kurdy, Joe Records, Joe Petzak, Bob Parsley, and Deacon Bill Petzak for all the work they have done inside the building.

The central figure in all of this has been our Parish Business Manager, John Krueger. John has done hundreds of hours of work on getting all the details of selling the old rectory and making arrangements for the move into the old convent. He deserves special thanks and praise for work far beyond the norm. We are very fortunate to have him. Especially with my absence from things right now, John has stepped in and filled so many voids.

I also thank the rest of the staff. This has been hard on Meg Lawless who is trying to get First Communion done while chaos reigns in the offices, but she is a great trouper. Nancy Krueger, Marisela Baca, Marianne White, Father Miller, Father Camacho, and Deacon Francis Hess have all done so many extra and special things as well. We have a great staff.

I welcome to our staff Melissa Lopez who will help out in the office while Marisela Baca is away on medical leave.

Happy First Communion to those in the Anglo community receiving the Eucharist for the first time this weekend. Hispanic First Communion will take place later.

Finally thanks to Father Patrick Foley for the excellent Parish Mission this week. He did a masterful job and we are very grateful to him.

Peace, Fr. Tom Faucher, Pastor

Primeramente déjenme informarles que he estado bien. Mi recuperación de mi cirugía de cadera esta siendo mucho mas rápido que de lo que me esperaba y los doctores están muy contentos al ver esto. Yo supongo que parte de mi recuperación rápida es debida a mi obediencia a todo lo que debo de hacer. En las siguientes semanas estaré participando en varios eventos pero no seré la persona encargada de esos eventos.

Yo se que la iglesia se ve muy sola y triste ahora que hemos perdido nuestros árboles. Fue muy triste el día que derribaron los árboles, pero hay que recordar que es necesario para la nueva iglesia y la mudanza de la casa del párroco. Vamos a colocar nuevos árboles como parte de la nueva construcción.

Quiero agradecer de lo más profundo de mi corazón a toda la gente que ha respondido a la llamada de voluntarios y que han ayudado a renovar la casita para que sea utilizada como la nueva oficina de la parroquia. Mucha gente, especialmente de la comunidad hispana, han venido a pintar y hacer varias otras cosas. Especialmente se reconoce ha Carlos Castro, Israel Gonzalez, Rosa Gonzalez, Dolores Ornelas, Bob and Pat Oberholzer, Wendy Kurdy, Joe Records, Joe Petzak, Bob Parsley, y el Diacono Bill Petzak por todo lo que han hecho al interior del edificio.

La figura central en todo esto ha sido el encargado de los negocios de la parroquia, John Krueger. John ha trabajado cientos de horas para juntar todos los detalles sobre la venta de la casa del párroco y haciendo los arreglos para la mudanza de la oficina a la casita. El merece un agradecimiento especial y elogios por su trabajo que ha sido mucho más que lo indicado. Somos muy afortunados a tenerlo. Durante mi ausencia, John se ha hecho disponible y ha llenado los varios vacíos creados por mi ausencia.

De misma manera le agradezco todo el trabajo del personal de la parroquia. Le ha sido muy difícil a Meg Lawless, la cual esta tratando de terminar las primeras comuniones durante este tiempo de caos que esta reinando en las oficinas, pero ella es como un buen militar. Nancy Krueger, Marisela Baca, Marianne White, Padre Miller, Padre Jesús, y el Diacono Francis Hess han hecho muchas cosas adicionales y además han hecho varias cosas especiales. Tenemos un personal estupendo.

También le doy la bienvenida a Melissa Lopez. Ella estará ayudando en la oficina durante la ausencia Marisela Baca. No sabe a lo que se esta disponiendo, pero creo que ella esta preparada para el reto.

Felicidades a todos los que van a recibir su Primera Comunión en la comunidad anglo, que van a recibir la Eucaristía por primera vez este fin de semana. Las primeras comuniones en la comunidad hispana serán después.

Finalmente un agradecimiento a el Padre Patrick Foley por la Misión Parroquial esta semana, la cual estuvo excelente. El hizo un trabajo magistral y estamos muy agradecidos con el.

Paz, Padre Tom Faucher, Párroco

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

May 6, 2007

Mayo es el mes de las flores, de la primavera. Muchas familias esperan la llegada de este mes para celebrar los sacramentos y, en el caso de los hispanos, celebrar las fiestas de quinceaños. También, mayo es el mes en que recordamos a nuestra madre y las flores son el regalo más frecuente de los hijos para honrar a quien les dio la vida. Por otro lado, mayo tiene el clima ideal para estar al aire libre, rodeados de la belleza natural de nuestros campos. Precisamente por esto, porque todo lo que nos rodea nos recuerda a nuestro Creador, este mes lo dedicamos a la más delicada de todas sus creaturas: la Santísima Virgen María. A lo largo del mes de mayo en pueblos y ciudades se reza el rosario, se elevan cantos a María y se celebran cientos de fiestas y actos marianos. Cada pueblo, cada parroquia, cuida que a la imagen de la Virgen no le falten flores o veladoras. "Venid y vamos todos con flores a María" se cantaba y se sigue cantando en nuestras iglesias. Invito a todos los devotos de la Virgen; es decir, a todos los que nos sentimos hijos/as, a todos los que la sentimos Madre, a que traigamos durante este mes no sólo las flores de la naturaleza, sino también y sobre todo las flores de nuestras vidas, con nuestros esfuerzos diarios por ser mejores y por agradar a nuestro Padre, con nuestra alegría compartida con los demás, con nuestras ilusiones depositadas a sus pies, con nuestras oraciones, con nuestros pequeños o grandes actos de amor.

Su amigo y servidor, Padre Jesús Camacho

May is the month of spring flowers. Many families await the coming of this month in order to celebrate the holy sacraments. In the case of the Hispanic community, it is a time for celebrating quinceaños. May is also the month to remember our mothers. During this month we give them flowers, the gift most frequently given, with the intention of honoring the person that gave us life. On the other hand, May is the month that has the ideal weather for outdoor activities, providing us with the privilege of being surrounded by the natural beauties of our land. Precisely because all of our surroundings remind us of our creator, we dedicate this month to the most delicate of all of his creations: the Blessed Virgin Mary. As the month of May progresses in towns and cities the rosary is prayed, and songs are elevated to Mary and there are hundreds of celebrations and Marian devotions. Each town and each church takes care of their statue of the Virgin Mary making sure that she has flowers and candles surrounding her at all times. "Come all with flowers for Maria" was sung and is still sung to this day in our churches. I invite all of those devoted to the Virgin; in other words, everyone of us that feels that we are the sons and daughters of Mary and those that feel she is their Mother, that during this month we bring not only nature's flowers, but also and above other things the flowers of our lives comprised of our constant will to be the best we can be and our constant desire to please our Father, the joy that we share with those around us, the desires we offer at his feet, our prayers, and our acts of love whether they be big or small.

Your friend and servant, Padre Jesús Camacho

RENOVATION UPDATE

- We are still on schedule to move the parish offices May 11th. The office will be closed on Friday, May 11th. We have requested assistance from the Knights of Columbus to assist with the moving but if anyone would like to help out please contact the Parish Office.
- The new Parish Office is starting to take shape, thanks to our painters and remodeling people. Special thanks to Joe Records and Ron Brough for remodeling the bathroom; the new colors and floor covering are really nice. Also, to members of the Hispanic community for all of the painting that they have provided, along with Bob and Pat Oberholzer and Wendy Kurdy. We also want to thank Bob Parsley for the electrical work he is providing so we can operate a computer and run an air conditioner at the same time. Also a special thanks to Deacon Bill for all his efforts to make our new offices more habitable.
- The contract on the rectory is final and will be moved starting the week of May 21st. The process to move the rectory will most likely take about 30-45 days.
- The trees are scheduled to be moved the week of 4/30. The Dogwood tree will be removed sometime in the next two weeks.
- We are scheduled to meet with the Diocesan Building commission for our next to last meeting on May 9th.
- Our architects plan to go to the City for our building permit on 5/14.
- We are still finalizing the contract with the city to re-route the sewer line.
