PASTORS' PAGE

From the Pastor:

It is time for an update on my health. As I have said, among other things, I have the condition known as hemochromatosis, which is too much iron in my system. I cannot eliminate the iron and it gets stored in various places in the body, one of which is the joints. This produces inflammation and an arthritic condition. It is in my knees, my hip, my back, and my hands.

The only treatment for this is bleeding. A large amount of blood is taken from the body and eventually that lowers the amount of iron in the body. But the bleeding does result in fatigue, which is one of the major things I am trying to deal with. There are a number of other causes of the fatigue as well. What happens with the fatigue is that there are mornings when I simply cannot function. I try hard to pace myself, but I am not always successful. My major external difficulties are with long periods of standing and with stairs. The hip and the knees do not like stairs nor standing.

In other words, there are days when I simply cannot get over the fatigue. I am very tired but cannot sleep. When I am feeling pretty good, I still limp a lot and cannot stand for long or do stairs. Other than that I am fine.

In any case, I will be undergoing more tests and an update on old tests to check everything out. I am indeed getting better, but it is slow.

I am very grateful for the people of Saint Mary's for being so patient with me at Mass and on other occasions. I have had to miss some important events, especially the funerals of two very precious and important parish members. I am grateful to Father Camacho and to the rest of the parish staff for taking care of me and for doing things in my place when I have not been able to do them.

Please continue to keep me in your prayers. I have an excellent doctor, and men and women on the staff and others who watch me like hawks to make sure I am doing everything I am supposed to do and nothing I am not supposed to do.

Peace,
Fr. Tom Faucher, Pastor

Quisiera compartir un reporte de mi salud con todos ustedes. Como ha mencionado anteriormente, unas de las varias condiciones que yo tengo es una enfermedad que se llama "jímocromatosis". Esto quiere decir que tengo mucho yerro en mi sistema sanguíneo. Esto causa que se acumule el yerro en varios lugares de mi sistema—especialmente en las coyunturas que causa inflamación y artritis en mis rodillas, mi cuadril, mi espalda y mis manos.

El único tratamiento que me puede ayudar es un proceso que se llama "sangrar". O sea sacan bastante sangre de mi sistema para poder rebajar la cantidad de yerro que se acumula en mi sistema, pero este procedimiento me fatiga mucho y este cansancio complica mi situación. También hay otras causas de mi cansancio. Lo que pasa es de que hay días en las mañanas que simplemente no puedo funcionar. Mi intención cada día es de mantener una agenda sencilla para no cansarme y a veces no es posible. Lo que me afecta mas es cuando estoy parado por mucho tiempo y cuando tengo que usar escalones. Mi cuadril y rodillas son las más afectadas.

En otras palabras, hay días que simplemente no puedo sobrepasar el cansancio. Estoy muy cansando pero no puedo dormir. Cuando me siento bien de todas maneras cojeo. Aparte de todo esto estoy bien.

Además, me van a hacer más estudios y evaluaran los estudios anteriores para revisar todo. Sí me estoy componiendo pero es un proceso muy lento.

Estoy agradecido a toda la gente de Santa Maria por su paciencia y comprensión en las ocasiones que no ha podido participar. He tenido que faltar a eventos importantes especialmente los funerales de dos miembros de nuestra parroquia que fueron una gran parte de nuestra comunidad. Le doy muchas gracias al Padre Camacho y al resto del personal parroquial porque me cuidan y porque hacen lo necesario para ayudar en mi ausencia.

Por favor sigan orando por mí. Tengo un buen doctor, y varias otras personas que me cuidan para asegurar de que estoy haciendo todo lo necesario para mejorarme.

Paz,
Padre Tom Faucher, Párroco

Day of the beloved departed. In the pre Colombian cultures of Meso-America, especially among the Aztecas, life was seen as a dream. Only in dying did a human being truly awaken. Death was not feared because it was inevitable. Death signified not an end, but a stage in a constant cycle, just as day followed night and spring followed winter. Worship of death involved worship of life – all those who left earthly homes were really alive.

On the Day of the Dead (November 2), the deceased are given divine consent to visit with their relatives and friends on earth. We honor them by transforming the room into an altar. We offer incense and flowers; we play their favorite music, make their favorite food and place their pictures and light candles for them. The family continues to live and to gather all of its members to celebrate. Because Jesus Christ is risen, we believe that our deceased brothers and sisters live with Christ. We do not forget them because they are our hope.

There will be a special Mass in Spanish this Wednesday, November 2, at 7:00 p.m. Every body is welcome.

Your friend and servant,
Padre Jesús Camacho

Día de los Fieles Difuntos. En las culturas precolombianas de Mesoamerica, especialmente entre los Aztecas, la vida era vista como un sueño. Solamente al morir, un ser humano despertaba verdaderamente. La muerte no era temida porque era inevitable. La muerte no significaba un final sino una etapa en constante ciclo, algo así como la noche sigue al día y la primavera al invierno. El culto a la muerte era en realidad un culto a la vida: todos los que habían dejado la tierra estaban vivos.

En el Día de los Muertos, todos los finados tienen permiso de visitar a sus familiares y amistades en la tierra. Los honramos transformando la sala de visitas en un altar. Les ofrecemos incienso y flores; les tocamos sus canciones favoritas, les preparamos su comida preferida, colocamos sus fotografías y les prendemos velas y veladoras. La familia esta completa y se reúne para celebrar. Puesto que Jesucristo ha resucitado, creemos que nuestros fieles difuntos viven con El. No los olvidamos porque ellos motivan nuestra esperanza.

Habrà una Misa especial, en español, este miércoles 2, a las 7 de la tarde. Están todos invitados.

Su amigo y servidor
Padre Jesús Camacho
