TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME—RESPECT LIFE SUNDAY

Domingo del Respeto a la Vida. Quiero compartir con ustedes algunos pensamientos y reflexiones. La vida es el don más grande que un ser humano puede recibir. Es un don que se debe aceptar con profundo agradecimiento, proteger con todos los medios a nuestro alcance y cultivar con todo cuidado y responsabilidad. Toda vida humana ha sido creada a imagen y semejanza de su Creador. Por el bautismo la vida humana adquiere una dimensión trascendente. Cada persona bautizada se convierte en habitación y templo vivo de Dios mismo. De ahí proviene la dignidad de toda persona. Gracias al Sacrificio de Cristo ofrecido en la Cruz, la creación entera ha sido rescatada para Dios, es de nuevo agradable a Dios. Por eso debemos respetar la vida en todas sus formas y manifestaciones, porque es un reflejo de la gloria del Creador. Los miembros hispanos de nuestra comunidad celebran el regalo de la vida con las tradiciones de venir a la Iglesia a dar gracias después del parto, dar gracias y pedir una bendición cuando se cumplan los tres años de vida; y dar gracias con una Misa especial cuando la jovencita cumple quince años. La vida no es propiedad nuestra; es un regalo del que debemos dar cuenta a Dios. Nuestro Padre Dios recibe mucho honor y gloria cuando una vida humana da frutos abundantes (Jn 15,8). El Padre John Powell, S. J. (uno de mis mentores espirituales) escribió este breve y bello poema en uno de sus libros ("El Holocausto Silencioso"): (La traducción al español es mía).

"El más grande regalo de Dios,
yo pensaría,
es el regalo de la vida.
El mayor pecado de los humanos,
a mí me parecería,
sería devolver ese regalo sin agradecerlo y sin abrirlo".

Su amigo y servidor
Padre Jesús Camacho

Sunday is Respect Life Sunday. I would like to share with you some of my thoughts and reflections. Life is a gift greater than any one human being can receive. It is a gift that should be accepted with profound appreciation, protected with every means possible and cultivated with care and responsibility. Every human life is created in the image and greatness of our Creator. Through Baptism, life acquires a transcendent dimension. Every baptized person is converted in to a dwelling and a live temple of God Himself. Dignity for every person comes from this place. Thanks to the sacrifice of Christ offered on the Cross, all of creation has been rescued for God, and it is again pleasing to God. This is why we should respect life in all forms and manifestations, because it is a reflection of the glory of our Creator. The Spanish members of our community celebrate the gift of life with the traditions of coming to Church to give thanks after a birth, give thanks and ask for a blessing when a child reaches three years of age; and give thanks with a special Mass when a young lady becomes 15 years old. Life is not our property; we should give credit to God for this gift. God our Father receives much honor and glory when a human life gives abundant fruit (Jn 15:8). Fr. John Powell, S.J. (one of my spiritual mentors) wrote this brief and beautiful poem in one of his books ("The Silent Holocaust"): (The Spanish Translation is mine).

"The greatest gift of God
I would think,
Is the gift of life.
The greatest sin of humans
It would seem,
Would be to return that gift Ungratefully and unopened."
