From the Pastor,

First of all I want to thank all of those who have contributed money for the fund to give Father Miller a trip to the Holy Land next February. It is a testimony to what a splendid priest he is and all the good work he does here at Saint Mary's.

This weekend both he and I are gone, and I am pleased to welcome Father Ben Uhlenkott from Risen Christ Parish and Father Henry Carmona from the Cathedral who are helping us out. We are fortunate to have such good priests in Boise. I will be here next weekend and then I will be gone for two weeks.

As I return, the building will begin to be more and more completed. We are scheduled to receive the remaining four windows in late October, the Great Doors in early November, and the remainder of the angels after that. The painting of Mary for over the altar will be shown for the first time in Bend, Oregon, in early December and then transported to Boise. It will probably be put into place just before or after Christmas.

Because of the way the two halves of the church will be stitched together we will have glimpses of what it will look like, and when it is possible for a tour of the new part we will do that after all the weekend Masses as we did last November with the part of the church we are in now.

Continue to pray for all of our great workers and their health and safety. They have all done a great job.

Finally, this past week I sent out a letter about the coming Parish Picture Directory. I urge all of us to have our picture taken and be in the directory. It is important for the parish.

Peace, Fr. Tom Faucher, Pastor

Del Párroco,

Primeramente gracias a todos quien han contribuido fondos para el viaje del Padre Miller a la Tierra Santa el próximo febrero. Es un buen testimonio del trabajo tan esplendido que comparte el Padre Miller con nuestra comunidad de Santa Maria.

Este fin de semana el Padre Miller e yo estaremos fuera de la ciudad y el Padre Ben Uhlenkott de la parroquia de Cristo Resucitado y el Padre Henry Carmona, Párroco de la Catedral nos van acompañar y celebrar Misas en nuestra ausencia. Aquí en Boise somos muy afortunados tener buenos sacerdotes. El próximo fin de semana va hacer mi último fin de semana antes de salir de vacaciones por dos semanas.

Ahora me refiero a la construcción para darles a saber que cuando junten las dos partes de la iglesia nos van a dar una oportunidad de ver la renovación de la vieja iglesia después de las Misas como hicimos el noviembre pasado cuando vimos la construcción de este espacio que usamos actualmente.

Sigan pidiendo por la salud y seguridad de los trabajadores en sus oraciones. Han hecho un trabajo muy bueno.

Finalmente, esta semana les envíe una carta sobre el nuevo directorio parroquial. Les pido a todos que se animen a participar y se tomen una fotografía familiar para incluirla en el directorio.

Paz, Padre Tom Faucher, Párroco

"Si el Señor no construye la casa, en vano se fatigan los obreros" (Salmo 126-27). Las obras humanas, por más admirables y maravillosas que sean, son perecederas, son transitorias. Las obras de Dios son permanentes. La persona cristiana construye su vida de cada día sobre su fe, guiada por la Palabra de su Dios. Dedicar tiempo a la oración y a la convivencia familiar, participa en las actividades de su comunidad parroquial y no gasta su salud solamente acumulando horas de trabajo: "Dios da el pan a sus amigos mientras ellos descansan". Nuestro Padre Dios nos pide que trabajemos; pero también nos da la ley del descanso. Nuestra misión como discípulos de Cristo es la de construir junto con Él un Reino para su Padre: un Reino de la Verdad, de la Justicia, de la Unidad y de la Paz. Los instrumentos de trabajo son nuestra fe, nuestra esperanza y nuestro amor. Que nuestro trabajo no sea puramente humano. Trabajemos en la obra que nuestro Dios nos ha encomendado porque el mundo lo está necesitando.

Su amigo y servidor,
Padre Jesús Camacho

"Unless the Lord build the house, they labor in vain who build it." (Psalm 127). Human labor, no matter how admirable and wonderful it may be, it is perishable and transitory. The labors of God are permanent. Christian people build their daily life based on their faith guided by the Word of their God. They dedicate their time to prayer and family life, participate in parish community activities and do not waste their health only accumulating hours of work. "You that eat hard-earned bread, for he gives to his beloved in sleep." (Psalm 127) God our Father asks us to work; but He also gives us the law of rest. Our mission as Disciples of Christ is to build with Him a Kingdom for His Father: A Kingdom of Truth, Justice and United in Peace. Our instruments of labor are our faith, our hope and our love. May our labor not be human labor alone, but rather let us work with our God in His name because our world is in need.

Your friend and servant,
Fr. Jesús Camacho
