From the Pastor,

Last Saturday just as John and Nancy Krueger and I were ready to leave for Sisters and Bend, Oregon, to see how the Great Doors and the painting of the "Adoration of the Christ Child" were coming along, we found out about the flooding in the church. I was deeply impressed with the work being done by Ray Hoobing and Jim Stubbs of CM Construction Company in dealing with the issue. I found out that the rain returned and that the 5 o'clock Youth Mass was a real adventure and the 7 o'clock Spanish Mass was held in the gym. Sunday was apparently better and Masses were in the church.

I want to thank all who worked so hard last weekend. Everyone says that things went as well as possible. Father Ben Uhlenkott did a masterful job as the celebrant for the Youth Mass and I thank him very much. I thank Maureen O'Toole and all the youth who handled the situation with incredible maturity, talent and humor. I thank Father Camacho and the Spanish speaking part of our community for all the work they did and their understanding of having to move the Mass. And I thank Ray and Jim for hours and hours of work.

One of the things I wanted to do in Sisters was to discuss with the artist carving the doors, J. Chester (Skip) Armstrong, the back side of the doors which represent Noah's Ark and the flood. As I did so I could not help but think of the flood in the church going on at the same time. God does have a sense of humor.

The Great Doors are magnificent. They will fill the 16-foot space between the narthex and the main church. For the past three months they have been in a kiln drying out so they can be here in Idaho which is much drier than the rain forest in Belize where the wood came from. They are about half carved on the side with the "Woman Clothed with the Sun," the dragon and St. Michael from the 12th Chapter of the Book of Revelation. Then Skip will do the back side with Noah. At this time they are scheduled to be finished and installed sometime in November.

The painting of the Christ Child and the saints is awesome. It will be a triptych painting with a central section and two side sections. The two side sections are almost finished and that is what we saw. The figures are so great that words are not really adequate. The overall painting is very big, 16 feet by 10 feet. It is scheduled to be finished in early December and will hopefully be here and installed just before or after Christmas. The artist, Tom Browning, is one of the most talented and accomplished painters in the country and we are so fortunate to have him working on this great work of art.

Finally, I leave this week for two weeks in Turkey on vacation. I know much will happen with the new church while I am gone and I thank everyone for all they have done and continue to do.

Peace, Fr. Tom Faucher, Pastor

El 29 de septiembre celebra la Iglesia la fiesta de los santos arcángeles Miguel, Gabriel y Rafael. La Biblia sólo menciona por su nombre a estos tres de los siete arcángeles que, según la tradición judeo-cristiana, se hallan más cerca del trono de Dios (libro de Tobías 12: 15). (Los nombres de los otros cuatro arcángeles: Uriel, Barachiel, Jehudiel, y Saeltiel, no aparecen en la Biblia sino en otros escritos que no forman parte de la Biblia). La Iglesia da a san Miguel el más alto lugar entre los arcángeles y le llama "Príncipe de los espíritus celestiales", "jefe o cabeza de la milicia celestial". Por eso se le representa con el traje de guerrero o de soldado. Su nombre significa "¿Quién como Dios?" y ya desde el Antiguo Testamento aparece como el gran defensor del pueblo de Dios contra el demonio; y su poderosa defensa continúa en el Nuevo Testamento, donde aparece victorioso en su lucha contra satanás (disfrazado de dragón) y sus ángeles rebeldes. Es la escena descrita en el libro del Apocalipsis 12: 7-9 y que aparecerá esculpida en la hermosa puerta de entrada de nuestra iglesia.

El arcángel san Gabriel (su nombre significa "mensajero de Dios") aparece como el mensajero/embajador de Dios ante la jovencita María de Nazaret para anunciarle el misterio de la Encarnación del Hijo de Dios (Lucas 1:26-38). Este santo mensajero del cielo es también el santo patrono de los que trabajan en los servicios postales, de telégrafos y teléfonos.

En cuanto a san Rafael (su nombre significa "el que cura o sana"), en el libro de Tobías se narra que Dios lo envió a ayudar al anciano Tobías que estaba ciego y se hallaba en una gran aflicción; y a Sarah, cuyos siete maridos habían muerto la noche de bodas.

Su amigo y servidor,
Padre Jesús Camacho

The Feast of the Holy Archangels Michael, Gabriel and Rafael is celebrated by the Church on September 29th. The Bible only mentions by name these three of the seven archangels who, according to the Judeo-Christian Tradition, are found to be closest to the Throne of God (Book of Tobias 12:15). (The names of the other four archangels: Uriel, Barachiel, Jehudiel, Saeltiel, do not appear in the Bible but they do appear in other writings that are not part of the Bible). The Church holds St. Michael in such high regard that he is called "Prince of the Heavenly Host," Head of the Celestial Army." This is why he is dressed in armor. His name signifies "Who is like God?" and from the Old Testament we learn that he is the great defender of the city of God against Satan; and his powerful defense continues in the New Testament, where he appears victorious in his fight against Satan (disguised as a dragon) and his rebellious angels. This is the scene described in the Book of the Apocalypse 12:7-9, which appears on the carving of the Great Doors at the entrance of our new church.

The Archangel St. Gabriel (his name signifies "Messenger of God") appears as a messenger of God before the young Mary of Nazareth to announce the mystery of the Incarnation of the Son of God (Luke 1:26-38). This holy saint from heaven is also the patron saint of those who work for postal services, telegraphs and telephones.

In Reference to St. Rafael (his name signifies "the one who cures or heals"), in the book of Tobias it is narrated that God sent him to help old Tobias who was blind and was greatly afflicted; and Sarah whose 7 husbands died on their wedding night.

Your friend and servant,
Fr. Jesús Camacho

All registered parishioners should have received a letter in the mail explaining our new pictorial parish directory provided by Olan Mills. If you did not receive a letter, please contact the parish office. One easy way to sign up to have your picture taken is by using the EZ SignUp™ option that Olan Mills is offering for our picture appointments during the month of September. The link to Olan Mills EZ SignUp™ is available on the St. Mary's website

- Once on the St. Mary's website, click on the "Olan Mills" link to navigate to the signup page for St. Mary's.
- You will notice when you reach the site that the required "Church Contract Number" has automatically been entered, and you are ready to fill out your information form and schedule your appointment. After completing your family information, click Save. On the next screen, scroll through the calendar for the highlighted photography dates. Select a date and time for your appointment, then print the information page.
